

Date Posted: November 8, 2016

JOB TITLES & DESCRIPTIONS
Interstate Gas Transmission
18 CFR Section 358.7(f)(1)

Senior Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Responsible for managing the operations, maintenance and commercial activities of FERC regulated interstate pipeline. Oversees the administration and application of information technologies and SCADA, the planning, organization and execution of various programs involving system development, the Integrity Management Program, Operational Budget and pipeline system optimization in addition to all commercial and business development activities.

Senior Vice President Commercial Operations

Responsible for budget development, management and staff development of Commercial Operations at American Midstream.

Director, Commercial Operations

Cross-functional position which consists of directing the contracting, invoicing, nominating, confirming and scheduling, gas control and field aspects of a natural gas pipeline system in a regulated environment. In addition, this position is responsible for maintaining customer contacts and assisting the Chief Operating Officer in the business development of the related assets.

Director, Area Operations

Responsible for supervision and coordination of the operations activities for American Midstream FERC regulated interstate pipelines. Assist the Senior Vice President of Operations with the planning, organization and execution of various programs involving system development, the Integrity Management Program, Operational Budget and pipeline system optimization.

Contracts/Regulatory Administrator

Responsible for the day to day commercial activities on American Midstream's FERC regulated, interstate pipelines. Duties include the negotiation and administration of transportation contracts, operational balancing agreements and interconnect agreements. Responsible for the responses to transportation service requests.

Sr. Manager, Operations Accounting

Oversees accounting functions for the American Midstream FERC regulated interstate pipelines and the monthly Transmission invoice process.

Director, Commercial Services

Oversees receipt and execution of nominations, scheduling, and allocations under transportation agreements, balancing agreement and interconnect agreements. Oversees day to day communication and coordination with shippers and interconnect operators in order to monitor and balance nominations for gas flow as well as receipts and deliveries.

Gas Schedulers

Responsible for the day to day receipt and execution of nominations, scheduling, and allocations under transportation agreements, balancing agreement and interconnect agreements; and day to day communications and coordination with shippers and interconnect operators in order to monitor and balance nominations for gas flow as well as receipts and deliveries.

Manager, Gas Control & Measurement

Oversees the monitoring and controlling of the pipeline systems to ensure sufficient operation pressures and volumes exist for safe and reliable operations based on shipper communicated requirements. Also fills System Controller function.

Gas Controller, Senior Gas Controller, Lead Gas Controller, Crude Oil Controller, Senior Crude Oil Controller, Lead Crude Oil Controller

Monitors and controls the FERC regulated interstate pipeline systems to ensure safe and reliable operations, maintain sufficient operating pressures and volumes based on shipper communicated requirements. Coordinates the daily activities of the pipelines between gas control and the commercial, nomination receipt, scheduling, customer service, field operations and engineering functions as well as with upstream and downstream producers, gatherers and pipelines.

Commercial Analyst

Responsible for tracking, reporting, analyzing and resolving customer service issues related to nominations, confirmation, scheduling, measurement, allocations, and invoicing aspects of a natural gas pipeline system in a regulated environment.

Job Descriptions

Contract Administrator***

Responsible for maintaining all transportation, operational balancing, interconnection contracts and provides assistance in executing the necessary amendments to such agreements.

Gas Controller***

Monitors and controls the pipeline system to ensure sufficient operating pressures and volumes exist for safe and reliable operations based on shipper communicated requirements.

Gas Pipeline Scheduler***

Coordinates with shippers, interconnect operators and pipelines for scheduling their transportation needs within system operating parameters, and the monthly transportation invoice process.

Manager Control Center***

Provide overall direction and leadership in the gas control function; the information technology requirements and solutions; the communication with customer representatives regarding daily transportation nominations/scheduled volumes; and, the monthly transportation invoice process.

Manager Gas Control & Business Systems***

Oversees administration and application of information technologies; shipper contracts; the day-to-day communication and coordination with shippers, interconnect operators and pipelines for scheduling their transportation needs within system operating parameters, and the monthly transportation invoice process.

Optimization Coordinator***

Provide direction and support to the gas pipeline schedulers and resolves scheduling issues with shippers, interconnect operators and pipelines for scheduling their transportation needs within system operating parameters, and the monthly transportation invoice process.

*Involved in the transportation function

ENBRIDGE PERSONNEL JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Vice President, Offshore Pipelines

Responsible for the commercial development, transportation services and gas control functions for Enbridge's offshore pipelines business. Oversees planning, budgeting, administration and development activities as they relate to new and existing customers, services and investments. Has overall profit and loss accountability for the business.

Director, Commercial Development

Directs the marketing and business development, contract administration, and asset management of Enbridge's offshore pipeline assets. Coordinates and develops proposals, prepares and negotiates agreements, and provides account management including opportunity identification and issues resolution for new and existing customers.